

GORAKH HILL STATION

The name of the place Gorakh is derived from the Brahvi language in which the word “Gurgh” means wolf. Some people even associate the place with a Hindu/Buddhist saint who used to wander around this area. The mountainous landscapes and vast plains make it a perfect option for camping. Also, the local folk music and the famous Sindhi biryani will make your visit worth it. Get all the information for the process of driving license online verification in Pakistan.
