

MURREE HILL STATION

The first hill station on our list is Murree (of course). It is one of the most famous tourist destinations in Pakistan. Every year, hundreds and thousands of local and international tourists visit this place. Murree is located on the outskirts of Islamabad, which means it is the perfect getaway place for people who are residing in Islamabad. Islamabad the second most beautiful capital of the world has some amazing places to visit and horror places as well. It's almost one and a half hour's drive to Murree from Islamabad. Murree is rich in history. It is an old town established by the British for their soldiers. It served as a sanatorium for troops for quite a long time. There are many theories related to the name "Murree". Some people say that the name was derived from the Turkish word 'marg' which means 'meadows'.
