

MOHEN-JO-DARO

You won't have a complete list of historical places in Pakistan without including Mohenjo- Daro- one of the largest cities of the Indus Valley Civilization. The ancient city, which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, was built around 2500 BCE and remained undocumented for over 3700 years until archeologists discovered it in the early 1920's. Mohenjo-Daro's size (over 300 hectares) and inclusion of public buildings seem to represent a high level of social organization according to historians. Wild right? Though the ancient city is unknown by most people, it's one of the most important landmarks in Asia.
