DUDIPATSAR LAKE

Another symbol of beauty, the Dudipatsar Lake is located at the height of 417 km in the northern side of Kaghan Valley. It can be accessed by traveling for 4 hours ahead from Jalkhad (locality of Kaghan Valley). It's name has a local meaning of Lake of Milk because of the rich white color of water. Although, water has it's natural blue color but the reflection of ice covered mountains cause a depiction of milky water effect.
